Wrapping It Up!

Group Members: _____

(1) What design elements or strategies did you use for your project?

(2) Which parts of your project worked the best?

(3) What would you change about your project to make it better?

(4) Which materials in your junk box were the most helpful? Which materials were not used?

(5) Write a description of this project using scientific terms and/or concepts.

(6) What are some applications of this project in our world?